Particulars of the Capture of Booth and Harrold.

NEW YORK, April 28.—It appears by Harrold's account that Colonel Baker sent

Lieutenant Colonel Conger and Lieutenant

Baker, of his detectives, with Lieutenant Dougherty and his cavalry, on reaching Garrett's farm, they were told by a son of Garrett, that there were two men in their barn. This was at 2 A. M. on Wednesday and, proceeding to the barn, Baker was forward, and called upon Booth to come out and give up his arms and surrender, and that young Garrett would go into the barn to receive the reward.

Upon his entering the barn, Booth exclaimed, "Get out of here, you have been trayed me."

A colloquy then ensued, of which the following is a substance:

Lieut. Baker—"You must give up your arms, and surrender. I have come here to take you a prisoner. You will have five minutes to surrender or burn the barn."

Booth—"Who are you, and what do you want?"

[Instructions had been given to Lieutenant Baker not to disclose the character of those who were in pursuit.]

Lieut. Baker—"We want you; we intend to take you prisoner."

Booth—"This is a hard case; it may be that I am to be taken by my friends." After some further colloquy of this sort, Booth seemingly convinced that he was in the hands of the Federal soldiers, said: "Give me a chance for my life. I am a private soldier and I will fight with you. I will give you one hundred yards from the barn, and I will come out and fight you."

Lieut. Baker—"We did not come here to fight, but to take you prisoner. You must give yourself and arms up and surrender."

Booth—"Let me have time to consider."

Booth—"Well, my brave boys, prepare a stretcher for me."

After this conversation took place between Booth and Harrold, the latter at Booth's side, he was heard to say, "You dward, you leave me now, but George, go, I don't want you to stay with me." He then addressed the party outside, and said:

"There is a man here who wants to come out." Lieut. Baker—"Then let him hand out his arms and come out." Another talk had occurred between Booth and Harrold, in which it appeared that the latter was beginning to be allowed to take out some arms with him, and Booth was heard to say, "Go away, I don't want you to stay with me." Harrold then came to the door and asked to be let out.

Lieutenant Baker said, "Hand out your arms."

Harrold replied, "I have none."

Lieut. B—"Yes you have; you carried a carbine when you came here. You must hand it out."

Booth—"He has no arms, they are all mine; upon my word as a gentleman he has no arms. All that are here belong to me."

Lieut. Baker then approached the door.

Harrold thrust out his hands and was pulled from the door, tied, and placed in charge of a guard. Col. Conger was then about an hour before he breathed his last.

He prayed for us to shoot him through the heart, and thus end his misery. His suffering appeared to be intense. Booth, although he had killed several of our party, seemed to be afraid, for mine was the only shot shot dead in the field.

When he fell he had in his hand a sixbarreled revolver, and at his feet was lying a seven-shooter, which he dropped after he was wounded. Two other revolvers were also near him. He declared that he had nothing to do with the murder.

We gave him brandy, and four men went in search of a doctor, whom we found about four miles from the scene of occurrence, but when he arrived Booth was dying.

He did not talk much after receiving the wound. When asked if he had anything to say, he replied: "I die for my country and asked those standing by to tell his mother so. He did not deny his crime.

CINCINNATI, April 28.—At a public meeting at Dayton yesterday, the body of the late President Booth was taken to midland and there buried.

Wilson's Raid.

NEW YORK, April 28.—Late Georgia prisoners give full accounts of Wilson's great raid.

After defeating Forrest at Selma and destroying the railroads, the rebels, Wilson moved eastward, capturing

Montgomery, West Point, Columbus, and Macon, scattering the militia on all sides, breaking up the machine shops, destroying military stores, and rendering the manufacture of materials for further campaigns impossible.

From Grant.

FORTRESS MONROE, April 27.—A steamer arrived this morning from Morehead City, bringing news from Newbern, that General Grant had effectively put an end to the armistice agreed upon between Sherman and Johnston, by giving up to 6 o'clock on Wednesday morning for Johnston to surrender his army.

The conditions are unknown. Grant announced that, after that hour, hostilities would be once resumed. To this Johnston is said to have replied that, if Jefferson and the leading general officers of the Confederacy were pardoned, and permission given them to leave the country, he would be authorized to accept the terms proposed.

The Funeral Train.

CLEVELAND, April 28.—All along the route from Buffalo to this city, which was reached this morning, the usual demonstrations of sorrow were witnessed.

The remains were escorted by a large military and civil procession to the beautifully constructed train prepared to receive them, and soon thereafter the face of the honored dead was opened to the thousands who, in admirable order, entered and retired from the enclosure.

The entire population of this city is abroad, all seemingly impressed with the solemnity of the occasion.
